

About Sonya Young & Associates

The organization is in partnership with key insurance and financial services companies. The companies represented through our agency include administrative, quotes, claims, and customer services, and many other benefits with our partnerships.

All prospects will receive a free comprehensive needs analysis to determine the solution and the plan needed.

If we are on the other line assisting other clients we will contact the caller back within 24 hours.

We offer educational seminars for all our clients.

Thank you,
