Update: Important Message Concerning Fall 2020 Classes from President Lattimore

In light of present challenges and future uncertainties related to the COVID-19 virus, all Hood Theological Seminary fall 2020 courses will meet 100% ONLINE.

We thank you for your continued patience, resilience, and flexibility as we navigate together through these challenging times and circumstances.

In grace and peace,

Vergel

Hood's Herald Spring 2020 Edit

Dear Hood Community,

An inadvertent error was made in the recent Hood's Herald Spring 2020 in which Rev. Randall A. Cain Jr. was left out of the 2019 Honor Roll of Donors under the James Walker Hood Society column. Rev. Randall A. Cain Jr. has now been added to the 2019 Honor Roll of Donors. You can find the updated version below.

Join Our Online Community!

We are excited to announce that Hood Theological Seminary now has its own online community as part of the 360Alumni platform. We decided to launch the online platform to enhance engagement across the Hood community. This resource will provide our alumni and supporters a place to network with one another and with the Hood community, to share resources, and to generate community conversations on topics relevant to particular areas of work.

This platform will allow those involved to create a dialogue with colleagues on a range of topics in theological education through an open forum—all within a live online environment. You will be able to join a group and get connected to events on and off-campus, see available jobs posted by various members, and join in great discussions. Members will also have the availability of great resources and will have the opportunity to join groups such as early clergy, chaplaincy, and alumni, just to name a few.

Faculty and Staff News

President Lattimore participated in the virtual 51st Prayer Call and Quadrennial Address of the Board of Bishops of the A.M.E. Zion Church, where he announced that Hood Theological Seminary will be fully online for the Fall 2020 semester, on July 25, 2020.

President Lattimore will participate in a conversation with Amy Kardash (President, InTrust for Theological Education, Inc) and the presidents/deans of the Historically Black Theological Institutions (HBTIs) to discuss a future magazine issue focusing on "The Gift of Black Theological Education," July 27, 2020.

Alumni News

Congratulations to Rev. Garner-Mullins, M.Div. '15

The Hood Theological Seminary Community would like to Congratulate Rev. Janet Garner-Mullins, accepted as a Fellow with Advance Carolina in the area of Environmental Justice.

Advance North Carolina ("Advance Carolina") is a statewide, independent, Black-led, 501c (4) organization with a mission to build political and economic power in Black communities and institutions in North Carolina.

Advance Carolina is part of NC Black Alliance which is an All Black Organization of elected officials and Black Leaders. (Check out the NC Black Alliance website).

In addition, Rev. Garner-Mullins will be working with their Faith-based outreach initiative relative to NC Voter education and engagement with the Faith communities, Seminaries, local and state organizations.

She is excited and thankful for the opportunity to serve in an All Black organization serving the needs, and addressing issues for the Black Community in NC.

Advance Carolina has an amazing, intergenerational group of fellows working to build Black political power throughout North Carolina!

Submit News/Events

Do you have any news or events to share? Please submit them to marketing@hoodseminary.edu to share with the monthly Hoodlines newsletter.

It's so easy to donate securely online! Or mail your check to the Seminary at 1810 Lutheran Synod Dr., Salisbury, NC 28144.

Your gift to the Annual Fund is essential in promoting the mission of the Seminary and in helping keep tuition as low as possible for our students. Every gift, small and large, is greatly appreciated and stewarded responsibly.

Create Your Legacy with a Planned Gift

- ~ Do you have an IRA?
- ~ Are you at least 70 1/2 years of age?
- ~ Would you like to help HTS in its mission to prepare women and men for bold and creative leadership for the Christian church for a diverse world?

If you answered "Yes" to all three questions, please consider an IRA Charitable Rollover.

In an IRA Charitable Rollover, the distribution of up to $100,000 annually made directly from the IRA custodian to a qualifying public charity, such as HTS, is excluded from gross income and counts toward the required minimum distribution.

For more information, contact John Everett at jeverett@hoodseminary.edu or (704) 636-6545, or visit our Planned Giving website for lots of helpful information.
