

Rev. Dr. Reginald Keitt

Vice President

Dr. Reginald Keitt is the Pastor of Saint Stephen Metropolitan A.M.E. Zion Church in High Point, North Carolina. Dr. Keitt has the following earned degrees; Livingstone College (Bachelor of Religious Studies), Wake Forest University (Masters of Divinity), University of North Carolina Charlotte (Masters of Urban Education), and Hood Theological Seminary (Doctorate of Ministry). Dr. Keitt has a wealth of knowledge in church and community collaboration.

Since graduating from Hood Theological Seminary, Dr. Keitt earned a Master of Urban Education from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. Dr. Keitt is the Financial Secretary of the Greensboro District A.M.E. Zion Church, Basileus of the Tau Alpha Chapter of Omega Psi Phi, Faith Advisory Council with Care4Carolina, and serves on the Council of Advisors with Hood Theological Seminary; Faith, Learn, Thrive.

Dr. Keitt responded when asked about his Hood Theological Seminary experience, “Hood equipped me with the practical aspect of Ministry. From the diversity of the study body to the passion from which the professors taught, all prepared me to apply what I learned to the context in which I serve.”